Schackrutor

"CHECKERBOARD" COOKIES

OVEN TEMP

400°F

BAKE TIME

10 MINS

SERVINGS

50 COOKIES

INGREDIENTS

2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 cup sugar
7 oz unsalted butter

2 teaspoons vanilla sugar
2 tablespoons cocoa

DIRECTIONS

Preheat oven to 400°F

Mix flour, butter and sugar into a dough.

Divide the dough into two pieces.

Mix the vanilla sugar into one half and the cocoa into the other.

Divide each half again and roll out to two logs.

Place one vanilla and one chocolate log next to each other and then the other two logs on top in opposite color.

Gently push the four logs together, wrap in plastic wrap and let rest / chill in the fridge for 30 minutes.

Cut log into 1/4 inch slices and put on a greased or parchment paper covered baking pan.

Bake for 10 minutes or until edges become slightly browned.

Let cool on the baking pan and ENJOY!

Store in cool dry place for up to two weeks. These cookies also freeze well.

SHARING FAMILY TRADITIONS

Little ones love being involved in the kitchen. Baking with kids should be fun, creative, and simple so we have decided to share one of our most favorite, beloved, and simple cookie recipes. These cookies are easy to make with kids and require only a few ingredients. Choose these sweet treats to add to your list of quick and easy dessert ideas the kids can help with. The Schackrutor (Checkerboard) cookie recipe is a favorite of Gunilla's from her childhood and we hope it encourages you to spend quality time with your loved ones while exploring the art of baking. They're guarantee to make life delicious!
